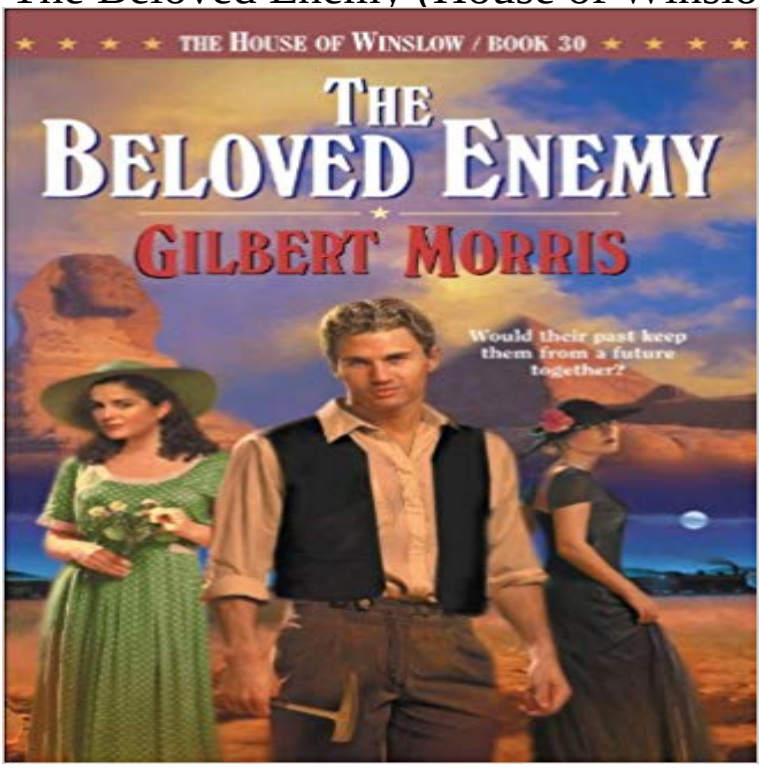
The Beloved Enemy (House of Winslow Book #30)



Would Their Past Keep Them From a Future Together?Kefira Reis, a young Jewish woman, works in a sweatshop in the New York garment district. When her boss abuses her, she fights back and flees, hoping to find a better life. Joshua Winslow has just been released from prison and longs to get his life back on the right track. But just as he sets out to find honest work, he is attacked by tramps and badly beaten. A timely encounter with Kefira saves Joshs life. As she encourages him to pursue his dream of becoming an archaeologist, she finds her own desires coming true. But complications from their past lives threaten their budding romance...and put their most cherished beliefs to the test.
