

Searching for Love (Amish Christian Romance) (Amish Eden, Book 2)

Book 2 of Amish Eden Series (Amish Christian Romance) Searching for Love by #1 Best-selling Amish author Ruth Hartzler

Now that Rachel is married to Isaac, Miriam employs the young Amish woman, Martha, to work at Eden. The vandalism escalates, the suspects again being the rival B&B owners. Yet is it vandalism, or looters searching for Captain Kidds lost treasure? Martha is drawn to the Amish man, James, but is James betrothed to an Englisher? While Martha searches for love at Eden, she first has to figure out who she can trust. This is Book 2 in this happy, feel-good, Amish romance series. Watch for Book 3, Amish Choice, coming soon!

About the Author. Ruth Hartzler is also the author of the #1 Best-selling Amish Romance series, The Amish Millers Get Married. Ruth Hartzlers father was from generations of what people refer to as Closed Open or Gospel Hall Brethren. Ruths mother, a Southern Baptist, had years of struggle adapting to the cultural differences, and always cut her hair, which was a continual concern to Ruths fathers family. Ruth was raised strictly Brethren and from birth attended three meetings every Sunday at the Gospel Hall, the Wednesday night meeting, and the yearly Conference, until she left the Brethren at the age of twenty one. Ruth still has close friends in the Brethren, as well as the Amish, both groups descending from Anabaptists. Ruths family had electricity, but not television, radio, or magazines, and they had plain cars. Make up, bright or fashionable clothes, and hair cutting were not permitted for women. Women had to wear hats in meetings (what others would call church meetings) but not elsewhere. The word church was never used and there were no bishops or ministers. All baptized men were able to speak (preach, or give out a hymn) spontaneously at meetings. Musical instruments were forbidden, with the exception of the traditional pump organ which was allowed only if played in the home for hymn music. Even so, singing of hymns in accompaniment was forbidden. Ruth Hartzler is a widow with one adult child and two grandchildren. She lives alone with her Yorkshire Terrier and two cats. She is a retired middle school teacher and enjoys quilting, reading, and writing.
