

Time Magazine has said, A hilarious book....In it, literary gamesmanship and self-consciousness are trained on life's most unendurable experience, used to examine a memory that is too scorching to stare at, as one views an eclipse by projecting sunlight onto paper through a pinhole. The New York Times says about A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius, A virtuosic piece of writing, a big, daring, manic-depressive stew of a book that noisily announces the debut of a talented---yes, staggeringly talented new writer.
