When she was young she wanted to write about social issues, politics, change the world. Then, she became engulfed and fascinated with the glamor of other people's lives. The romance of others. Her own life was mundane and simple. She needed that to change. She thought that if she could live the lives she wrote about, she would be happy. What she needed was excitement, romance, danger, that would make it all better. What she really needed, perhaps, was just a nice guy.

This is NOT some table-thumping tome that will end up unread and gathering dust on your virtual bookshelf. This is simply a well-written romantic short story that will have you flipping over the pages in feverish anticipation. Perfect for a lunch break or when you have some time to kill!
