

Fools Mate

As an experienced and deadly mercenary for the British Intelligence Agency SR(2), Philis is used to living on the edge. Highly-trained and dangerous he thrives on risks and indulges in the financial rewards once his missions are completed. When Sir Keith Tenby, one of Britains leading financiers, approaches him with the bare bones of an opportunity that sports a very appealing price tag, Philis is hooked. He is entrusted with the task of escorting a woman across France into England without even the knowledge of her identity. But Philis guesses correctly that there is more to the situation than meets the eye. In fact she is revealed to be Idi Amins most prized mistress and it is not just the Ugandan dictator who is determined destroy Philis well-laid plans. Multiple factions reveal themselves in their attempts to claim her life whether it be for money, revenge or secrets.
