

The Eight Sacred Texts of India

The sacred scriptures of India are the following: Vedas Upanishads Puranas Bhagavad Gita Mahabharata Ramayana In this book, I examine these and show that the first three are nothing more than the random thoughts of numerous priests focused on duping their audience: the Persian rulers of the time. The Bhagavad Gita and Mahabharata were not sacred and not Indian: being about internecine war amongst Persian nobility. The Ramayana is not Indian and not about God.
