

In my small corner: A journey between faiths

In my small corner

A journey between faiths

Valerie Simpson

The compelling story of a couples long journey from a Christian background to becoming Orthodox Jews. The story begins in childhood and continues through marriage, children, enlightenment, amazing experiences through to conversion to Judaism with rejections and trauma along the way. It is a story of the growth of faith and its fulfillment in a changed lifestyle as orthodox Jews. It is a truly inspiring and well written story that we hope may be an inspiration for those people seeking answers to their doubts.
