

Far and Away (New Beginnings Book 5)

The hope of a future for the broken begins in Mourning. Priscilla Thorns heart broke when her son killed his wife and now shatters when her son takes his own life. Priscillas grief-stricken soul finds little comfort knowing before he died, Samuel turned his life over to God. Priscilla believes for Samuel to receive forgiveness from the Heavenly Father, she must give it to Samuels earthly fatherher abusive ex-husband. Edgar Fritz is stunned when the woman he loves takes her dying ex-husband into her home. While Priscilla sees caring for her ex-husband as showing Gods love, Edgar believes Stephen will use the opportunity for revenge. Edgar risks losing Priscillas friendship by insisting the man hasnt changed his ways and has come back to hurt her one last time. Is Priscilla risking her life by insisting her ex-husband changed so the world -- and God -- will know her son had changed?
