For the past eighteen months, Jordan Gray has raised her deceased sisters children alone. She loves and wants whats best for them. Unfortunately, her teenaged nephew doesnt care. Caleb is constantly in trouble, and each new infraction is worse than the last. With nowhere else to turn, she begins to search for the boys unknown father, convinced that finding him will be the hard part. She couldnt be more wrong. Her intense reaction to the man is as exhilarating as it is bewildering. Surely, this former bad boy couldnt be the one God has chosen for her? When FBI Agent Carl Spence learns that someone is using cyberspace to look for him, he does what hes trained to do hunt the hunter. When the enemy turns out to be a pretty young woman, hes surprised, but thats nothing compared to the jolt that rocks his world when she delivers her news hes a father. While Spence builds a relationship with his troubled son, he battles a strong pull toward the boys virtuous aunt. Too bad shes not his type. Struggling with a mutual attraction seems challenging enough, until a new danger threatens to destroy them.
