

Dhammapada

1. All that we are is the result of what we have thought: it is founded on our thoughts, it is made up of our thoughts. If a man speaks or acts with an evil thought, pain follows him, as the wheel follows the foot of the ox that draws the carriage. 2. All that we are is the result of what we have thought: it is founded on our thoughts, it is made up of our thoughts. If a man speaks or acts with a pure thought, happiness follows him, like a shadow that never leaves him. 3. He abused me, he beat me, he defeated me, he robbed me, in those who harbour such thoughts hatred will never cease. 4. He abused me, he beat me, he defeated me, he robbed me, in those who do not harbour such thoughts hatred will cease.

Explanation: Being devoted to what is wrong, not being devoted to what is right, abandoning one's welfare, one goes after pleasures of the senses.
