

What he did to her

Conors life consists of drugs, drink and getting dirty with as many women as possibly. He doesnt care about the size, shape or colour as long as they want uncomplicated fun then hes happy. For him love and relationships come with dire consequences and thats not how he wants to live his life. To Conors dismay, he finds his married boss Marcus, is having a fling with his very own sister Debs, and Conor has been asked to cover the trail by lying to the boss's wife. The only problem is that he works with Neve and shes no pushover. When everything comes out into the open, his loyalty to friends and family are put to the test as people he thought he knew well are not what they seem. And when an ex walks back into his life he is once again ruled by the snake in his pants knowing shes more than a handful to deal with. Conor begins to find his simple hedonistic life being taken over by other peoples clouded judgement on their need for love, while he tries to avoid the same thing happening to him. Except love is creeping up on him in an unexpected place that he would just about do anything to avoid. And temptation is going to lead him and his loved ones into trouble with serious consequences.
