

Beguiled

The Civil War has torn Isabelle Holloways world apart, and now she has little help to manage her vast Georgia plantation. But when the Union Army leaves a brash Yankee Zouave behind, Isabelle is inexplicably moved to nurse this gravely wounded, startlingly beguiling soldier. Alice OMalley wants nothing more than to recover from her injuries, don her male attire, and rejoin the Federal Army. But after the alluring Southern Belle discovers her true identity, their clash of wills soon transforms into passion-filled nights in each others arms. Alice has been in love with a woman before, and fears risking everything for her enemy lover. As war returns to Isabelles doorstep, Alice discovers the wounds of the heart are far more vital to heal than the wounds of the flesh.
