

And a highway shall be there, and a way, And it shall be called The way of holiness...--Isaiah 35:8 There is a way that God has called each of His children to follow. It is the way of holiness. And He is so committed to our walk on this path that He has given us easily identifiable signposts to guide us. The question is whether we will choose to follow them. When you come to the crossroads of spiritual decision, you have a choice: to either heed Gods signs and continue day by day on this important way, or to ignore them and muddle through. You may be struggling with sin, wrestling with forgiving someone who has hurt you deeply, or battling with the idea of submitting yourself wholly to God. No matter where you find yourself, denying or ignoring Gods directions will leave you immature and ineffective; following them will allow you to handle these situations wisely, obediently, graciously--and victoriously. The Way of Holiness clearly illustrates that each crisis of decision in the Christian life is a turning point. An opportunity to choose God, to express your devotion to Him, and to experience His direction. There are inevitable decisions you will face in your Christian walk. Making biblical choices will free you to enjoy all that God has for you on the way of holiness. As you therefore have received Christ, so walk in Him. --Colossians 2:6 The subject of holiness is an awesome, yet essential, thing to consider. Awesome because it is beyond our understanding. Essential because to maintain purity and set ourselves apart for Gods service alone is the key to spiritual maturity. The only possible way to walk that path of holiness is to be sensitive to Gods voice and heed the signposts He has placed at the crucial forks in our road. Each biblical signpost described in these pages entails a crisis of decision--a choice that, if navigated properly, will move you forward in your spiritual journey. Each of those decisions sets the pattern of your Christian life. If you use Gods signposts to make your response all that it can and should be, youll progress steadily toward holiness, victorious living, and increasing Christlikeness even in the face of temptation. And Gods purpose for your life will be accomplished in a most magnificent way.
