

Journey: My Political Life (Chinese Edition)

This book is Tony Blair's first-hand narration of his experiences during his tenure and other positions. Blair first talks about how to play a role in shaping the history of the United Kingdom from the death of Princess Diana to the launch of the anti-terrorism war. This book is about the nature and application of political power, which includes frank, fearless and sarcastic details and records the ups and downs of Blair's career, thus making readers not only catch a glimpse of a statesman but also get close to an ordinary man.
