

Ben (A Survivor Story Book 2)

2nd Edition A Survivor Story From her perch on a shelf above my bed, the doll accuses me with lifeless eyes of failing Juliette in the most heinous way imaginable, forcing me to crave the bite of his whip and the steel in his voice to drown out the ache in my chest. For his entire life, Benjamin Martins parents drilled into his head that he must watch out for his little sister, but one horrific night, he failed. Now, the bite of a whip, cuffs digging into his wrists, his arms and legs stretched beyond endurance, these things give him what he needs to forget his sisters violent death, at least for a while. When Bens latest Dom casts him aside like a broken toy, he manipulates his best friend, Jude Archer, into picking up the pieces. Jude has been in love with Ben for years, but his fantasies about his friend never included whipping him. He doesnt understand why Ben needs BDSM and he worries about Bens addiction. Most of all, he fears losing his humanity because hes already lost himself in Ben. When hes forced to trade the marks upon his soul for the pain that ravages Ben, Jude learns the real definition of submission. This novel was previously published under title Painting Fire on the Air, September 2013.
